

BY Virtue of sundry Writs of Venditioni Expositas to me directed, will be exposed to sale by way of public vendue, on Thursday the 20th day of April instant, in the borough of Carlisle, the following discribed tracts or parcels of land, viz.

About 200 acres, be the same more or less, with valuable improvements, and a large quantity of good meadow, situate in East Pennsborough township, near the mouth of Conedoguinet creek, about three miles from Harrisburgh. Seized and taken in execution as the property of Charles Stewart.

About 200 acres, be the same more or less, situate on the waters of Racon creek near the Tuskarora mountain, in Tyrone township. Seized and taken in execution as the property of William M'Kenny.

An undivided moiety or half part of about 200 acres with improvements thereon, situate in Millford township; late the property of Morton Crozer.

About 150 acres, be the same more or less, with a grist mill and other improvements thereon, situate on Kishacoquillis creek, about two miles below William Brown, Esq. Seized and taken in execution as the property of Abraham Sandford.

About 200 acres, be the same more or less, with improvements thereon, situate in Rye township. Seized and taken in execution as the property of Robert Smith, deceased,

About 270 acres, be the same more or less, with improvements thereon, with about 100 apple trees, and it is said there is an excellent seat for mills on a never failing stream of water, situate about a mile from the mouth of Juniata on the river Susquehanna; late the property of Robert M'Harry, deceased.

300 acres, more or less, with improvements thereon, situate in Millford township, Tuskarora valley, joining lands of John Crozer and others; late the property of John Orr.

About 300 acres, be the same more or less, with improvements thereon, situate on the River Juniata, in Wayne township; late the property of George Mitchel.

200 acres, more or less, with improvements thereon, joining lands late of Stophel Montz and others, in Rye township; late the property of Francis Ellis, deceased.

200 acres, more or less, joining lands of Abraham Kepner and others, situate in Fermanaugh township; late the property of Henry Holman.

300 acres, be the same more or less, joining lands of John Riddle and others, situate in Rye township; late the property of John Carson.

100 acres, be the same more or less, joining the river Susquehanna, and the north mountain in East-pennsborough township; late the property of Lewis Lewis.

200 acres, more or less, improvements thereon, joining Shearman's creek, and lands of Mary Ramsay and others, in Rye township; late the property of Samuel Grahams.

100 acres, more or less, with improvements thereon, joining lands of Michael Pfoutz and others in Greenwood township; late the property of John Pfoutz, Senr.

200 acres, more or less, with valuable improvements thereon, and a shad fishery; this land is of a good quality, situate in Wayne township; late the property of Marshall Stanley.

600 acres in two tracts, situate on the waters of Fishing creek, in Rye township, late the property of John Pyle.

100 acres, more or less, in Middleton township, about three miles from Carlisle, small improvements thereon; late the property of Alexander Armstrong, deceased.

300 acres, be the same more or less, two dwelling houses, and 100 acres clear, situate in Hope-well township, joining lands of John Brownfield and others, now in the possession of James Kenny; late the property of Alexander Richards and William Richards. To be sold by

SAMUEL POSTLETHWAIT, Sheriff.

Carlisle, 3d April, 1786.